

Temple Sholom Family Retreat

Join us at Hueston Woods, September 10th-11th to kick off our school year
Everyone Welcome!

- Sat Afternoon: Chugim

Get right to action when you arrive with a taste of our religious school's "electives" program by choosing from activities like hiking, swimming, arts & crafts or sports

- Sat/Sunday: Cookout

Grill delicious food in the outdoors to share as communal meals for dinner and breakfast

- Sat Evening: Campfire fun

Greet the new week under the stars with Havdallah Saturday night followed by songs, smores and stories around the campfire

- Sat Night: Connect with old friends and meet new ones

Supervised lights-out activities for kids & adults only social for grownups

- Sun: Family education on the shores of Acton Lake

After an optional early-risers playgroup/sunrise nature walk, followed by breakfast, join together with your children for interactive learning and also have time to engage with adults and Rabbi T.

Plan to arrive by 3 pm on Saturday, September 10th and leave by noon on Sunday, the 11th.

High School students—come for your own campout fun the night before, on September 9th—details to follow.

Each family can choose between bringing gear to join our camp-site, or reserving a hotel room at the Hueston Woods Lodge. Dinner Saturday & Breakfast Sunday provided. Pack casual clothes, comfortable shoes and bathing suits!

Please RSVP to juliesolomon@templesholom.net before August 15th!
